

I respect you. Please respect me.

West Lothian Council employees are expected to treat all customers with respect.

In return, we do not expect our staff to be threatened or to tolerate verbal aggression, bullying or physical assaults from our customers.